LETTERS OF BARON BIELFELD

This historic agreement represents the first time leaders from the major national organizations representing community college presidents, boards, and program administrators have joined with representatives from nursing education associations to promote academic progression in nursing. The paper reveals how Florentine citizens used their confraternities to bolster individual and collective honour, to distance themselves from their social subordinates at the same time as they lent them aid, and to establish the discursive space necessary to perform a range of charitable activities that reinforced, renewed and ordered Florentine civil society.
