Climate protection and poverty reduction are used in The Last Battle of the Icemark to sketch four scenarios for shaping cultures, from which the world community has to make a principal and principled choice soon. Nine-year-old Pippi lives all by herself with a horse, a monkey and a suitcase of gold coins. Obey the principle without being bound by it. While there seem not to be an immediate danger of genetic erosion in neither of the subspecies, some precautions should be taken: the number of wild populations is low and there is potential risk of disappearance due to river bank cleanings; the number of used cultivars is very low compared to the number of autochthonous available cultivars, and the loss of interest in their use may lead to their rapid disappearance. It isn't always whether or not the story was your taste, sometimes its just about what you are left with once its finished.
